ONAHAN'S LATEST.

Fearing That the Saloonkeepers Are Not Bothered Enough Already.

The Acting Mayor Desires to Give $20,000 a Year to the Citizens' League.

In the Hope That Its Spies, Spotters, and Fanatics Will Break Up Beer Selling in Chicago.

Mayor Onahan's crusade against the saloons is to be carried on with unabated vigor. He has already won many laurels from Prohibitionists by closing up several saloons. He has shut up James McCormick's place on North Clark street simply because he has a spite against Ald. McCormick, who is a brother of James, and notwithstanding the efforts of his neighbors to recover the license for him. The offense that James McCormick was guilty of was in letting a foot of sunlight into his place, and in neglecting to keep it entirely dark on Sunday.

But Onahan I. has a great scheme on hand now, which will undoubtedly fill his friends with delight.

He proposes to take the $20,000 yearly allowance away from the Washington Home, and give it to the Citizens' League.

The Citizens' League is a society for the suppression of saloons.

Onahan I. knows what the Washington Home is, and it is probably as big a fraud as he says it is.

But the Citizens' League is not entitled to any of the city's money, and the taxpayers will object to having their taxes diverted to the support of a prohibition Spotters' Association.

Onahan I. has neglected to answer the following queries propounded to him:

1. Is your attempt to close the saloons on Sunday born of a desire to shut them all up on principle, or is it a desire to gratify a personal spite against a few?

2. Is it or is it not true that when you were City Collector you permitted certain saloon-keepers who were friends of yours to pay their license money in dribs and drabs, a little whenever they were able, while you enforced the law strictly against all who were not your friends?

3. Did you or did you not keep envelopes in the vault, while City Collector, containing the remittances of friends toward paying for their licenses?

As he has refused to say anything in reference to such an important matter, the only inference to be drawn from his silence is that the implied charges contained in the queries are all true.

Onahanism, favoritism, and fanaticism must go.

EAGLETS.

SAN FRANCISCO proposes to license prize fights for $5,000. It is either too high or not high enough. If they are to be permitted at all, the license should be high enough to cover the cost of a murder trial or two.

ONE of Mr. Barnum's methods of advertising his show in England will be to send up a number of small balloons marked, "Present this at the circus door and get a free seat." The balloons are arranged to come down at different times, and will be sent up by the score after the show opens.

A GREAT deal of annoyance has been experienced by Americans visiting Ireland by the present prohibition against carrying arms in that country, and only the other day a Californian, quite unconscious that he had committed an offense, found himself hauled before a magistrate and fined $5, besides forfeiting his revolver.

THREE fishermen off the Florida coast in a small boat were attacked by a gray eagle the other day. They were watching the majestic flight of the proud bird of freedom, when it suddenly soared high above them and then came down with a tremendous sweep, just missing the head of one of the men. It made several such attacks, and was only beaten off by a vigorous use of fishpoles.

A GHOSTLY CHECK BOOK

It Will Be Given Up in November, 1890, When the People are Heard From.

C. B. Charlie's Experience with Bolts of Calico Nothing to What He Will Experience with Bolts of People.

The Democracy Filled with New Hope and the Republicans Weighted Down with a Heavy Candidacy.

Senator Farwell is a dead bird in the pit. He will be beaten to a stand-still in the election of 1890.

Having to face an enthusiastic and united opposition from the Democracy, he also has to face a tremendous opposition from Republicans.

The truth of the matter is that the people are tired of being represented by a Check Book.

There is nothing about Check-Book Charlie to win the confidence of the masses.

The great foreign-born population of Chicago is insulted weekly in a paper owned and published by the Senator's son-in-law.

The cordial relations existing between the Know-Nothing publisher and his father-in-law are not lost sight of by the many enemies of absent-minded Taylor's partner.

There is a State Senator to be elected in the First District.

Farwell will lose the district.

There is a State Senator to be elected in the Third District.

Farwell will lose it.

There is a State Senator to be elected in the Fifth District.

Farwell will lose it by a large majority.

There is a State Senator to be elected in the Seventh District.

Mr. William J. Campbell will carry it for Farwell.

There is a State Senator to be elected in the Ninth District.

But not for Charlie.

There is a State Senator to be elected in the Eleventh District.

Not for Check Book.

There is a State Senator to be elected in the Thirteenth District.

For any one but Farwell.

It can thus be seen that Farwell is an impossibility. Cook County will reject him utterly, and the rest of the State will attend to the balance.

Congressmen Payson, Hitt and Cannon are openly opposed to Farwell's re-election.

So are all enemies of Know-Nothingism and all friends of honest labor.

Farwell's friends beat Roche last spring and threw four thousand Republicans out of office.

Next year will be a hard one on Check Books.

A Pertinent Question.

CHICAGO, Oct. 23.

To the Editor.

Why is it that married ladies are employed as teachers in the public schools, while hundreds of young single ladies who are seeking similar positions are unsuccessful? Married ladies are supposed to be supported by their husbands, while many of the single ladies are obliged to support themselves. Why not give the girls a chance to make a respectable living by teaching if they are competent to do so? MOTHER OF A NEPHEW.
